

Full-time Staff Pharmacist near Albuquerque, NM.

New grads or experienced pharmacists!

You will be expected to provide outstanding customer service which will include assisting in proper selection of OTC items as well as accurately dispensing of prescription medications and providing counseling and answering any questions the patient may have. Working well with all pharmacy employees is also expected, as a team environment is mandatory to serving the customers in a timely and efficient manner.

Requirements:

- All applicants are required to be licensed to practice pharmacy in New Mexico and be in good standing with the New Mexico State Board of Pharmacy.
 - Posses the necessary interpersonal skills required to interact with patients, coworkers and other health professionals.
 - Receives verbal Rx orders and accurately reduces same to writing in adherence with State and Federal laws and regulations.
 - Evaluate appropriateness of prescription orders with consideration for patient safety and legal requirements. Consults with prescribes as necessary.
 - Maintains accurate records, properly receives Rx information from customer, properly and accurately delivers Rx to customers, assists with over the counter questions and selection. Demonstrates ability to accurately and efficiently utilize pharmacy computer system.
 - Is both familiar with and compliant with all record keeping requirements for controlled substances.
- Salary is $125,658/Year.
 - Excellent benefits!
 - Sign on bonus and relocation available.
 - This position may turn into a management position in the near future.
 - If interested please call Alan at 702-617-4507 or e-mail Alan@Taylormadehealthcareers.com

Alan Taylor Taylor Made Health Careers, LLC (702)617-4507 (866)601-4507
Fax:(702)367-8199 www.Taylormadehealthcareers.com