

New Mexico Clinical
Neurostimulation
Meeting 2017

Albuquerque, NM

October 4-6, 2017

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Abstract Submission Deadline: September 25, 2017

Abstract Fee: There is no abstract fee.

Abstract Guidelines:

Format your abstract as a PDF file, and email your abstract as you would like it to appear on the Clinical Neurostimulation meeting website.

Format Abstracts to include the following:

- Title – up to 100 characters
- Authors and Affiliations
- Introduction, Methods, Results, Conclusions - There is no space limit, but please keep to a reasonable length
- Figures (optional) - See guidelines below
- References

Please include sufficient detail in your methods and results sections to enable readers to have a clear understanding of what data has been collected and what results have been observed. For example, where appropriate please include information on data acquisition, data processing, number of subjects tested, quantitative results and statistics, etc.

Guidelines for including figures in your abstract:

- There is no limit to the number of figures. Figures should be included in the PDF abstract file submitted.

WHEN COMPLETED, PLEASE EMAIL PDF FILE OF ABSTRACT TO Rick Campbell at rcampbell@salud.unm.edu

In the body of the email, please copy and paste the following, and answer the questions listed. This will help us to assign reviewers and to contact you later:

Name of presenting author (First and Last):

Name of contributing author (if different):

Name of submitter (if different from authors):

Abstract title:

Preferred email address of presenting author:

Preferred email address of submitter (if different than presenting author):

Organization (Name of University, Hospital, Business, etc.):

Location (City, State/Province, Country):

Type(s) of stimulation method(s) used or examined (e.g. tDCS, TMS, or list what other):

Main clinical or theoretical topic of abstract (addiction, attention, individualized stimulation, etc.):