RE: NSF Fastlane

The National Science Foundation has an application called Fastlane which enables you, as principal investigator, to prepare your proposals on-line, to check the status of your pending proposals and awards, and to prepare final reports on-line. In order to access Fastlane, you need a password. Please complete the following form, and submit it to HSC-PreAward@salud.unm.edu so we may get you set up.

NSF's homepage is: <https://www.fastlane.nsf.gov/>
