

Celebrating Compliance Week, November 6-10, 2023 at the University of New Mexico and UNM Health and Health Sciences. Visit our website today!

The UNM Health and Health Sciences strives to create a culture of integrity, ethical, compliant behavior, and accountability for its employees. One of the ways this is done is through the Compliance Hotline.

The Compliance Hotline, also known as EthicsPoint, is a third-party reporting system where employees, patients, and community members can report concerns of unethical or non-compliant behavior and allows the UNM Health and Health Sciences Compliance Department to capture and investigate each incident reported.

Reports to the Compliance Hotline can be made anonymously or known online or by phone. Intake is done by out-of-state, non-UNM staff. Providing as much accurate and detailed information as possible is essential for the investigation whether it is being reported anonymously or not.

It is important to remember that the Compliance Hotline isn't the only avenue for resolving issues. In fact, it is always preferred that you address your concerns with your supervisor or another leader in your department as a first step toward resolution. It has been the UNM Health and Health Sciences Compliance Department's experience that many concerns that come through the Compliance Hotline are the result of miscommunication and can be alleviated through candid and respectful discussions between you and your supervisor.

If you are not comfortable speaking with your supervisor about your concerns, you can also reach out directly to the UNM Health and Health Sciences Compliance Department to discuss any suspected non-compliant or unethical behavior.

Toll-free and Online reporting accepted 24/7:

888-899-6092 | unm.ethicspoint.com

24/7 confidential & anonymous unless otherwise provided by law

UNM Health & Health Sciences Compliance Department:

(505) 925-6053 or (505) 272-7371

The UNM Health and Health Sciences Compliance Team is excited to celebrate national Corporate Compliance and Ethics with you!

