CENTER FOR DEVELOPMENT & DISABILITY

Center for Development and Disability Library

New Mexico's only library dedicated to providing information, resources and services on development and disability.

Who can get a library card?

Anyone who lives in New Mexico! Provide your name, mailing address and contact information and we will mail you your library card - for free.

Register for a library card below:

You can check out up to 4 items for 4 weeks.

Explore our catalog below:

Almost every item in our collection can be mailed to you for free and with free return postage.

What kind of items do you have?

We have over 10,000 items on ASD, education, employment, & other disability related topics for all ages. Titles are available digitally and in English, Spanish, Navajo and other languages.

Anything else I should know?

Yes! You can contact us for one-on-one assistance in navigating the library, research and more. Come visit us Mon - Fri, 9 am - 12pm and 1pm - 4pm to use our assistive technology or participate in fun programming like sensory friendly storytimes and film screenings.

Check out our information and resources below:

You will find more information about the library, research guides and more great resources.

9/2026

844-231-5003 | hsc-infonet@salud.unm.edu | 5338 Montgomery Blvd NE Albuquerque, NM 87109

This Document was prepared under a sub-grant from the New Mexico Developmental Disabilities Council and is supported by the Administration for Community Living (ACL), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of a financial assistance award totaling $549,806 with 75% funded by ACL/HHS and 25% funded by the State of New Mexico. Points of view or opinions do not necessarily represent official views of, nor an endorsement by, ACL/HHS or the U.S. Government.