

MISSION: to improve and sustain the quality of health and healthcare for all people with ID/DD in New Mexico

TRAINING TO MEDICAL AND SERVICE PROVIDERS

- Goal: to increase awareness, medical knowledge and sensitivity in the area of developmental disabilities.
- Regularly scheduled and customized trainings
- Continuing Medical Education credit available through UNM Continuing Education

CLINICAL SERVICES/RESOURCES TO CONSUMERS AND FAMILIES

- NM SAFE (Supports and Assessment for Feeding and Eating)
- Adult Cerebral Palsy Clinic
- Neurology Consultation Clinic – Abq, Roswell, Clovis
- Ketogenic Diet Clinic
- Adult Special Needs Clinic
- CHUMS (Client Health Updated Medical Summaries) wallet cards
- Healthcare Coordination Toolkit
- Medical Consultation with Interdisciplinary Team

RESEARCH AND EVALUATION

Example: Conducting mortality reviews to inform policy, improve quality of direct services, and advise funding allocations under the DD waiver.

As a professional, go to Continuum of Care for:

Training and consultation on medical care and services for persons with disabilities

As a professional, refer to Continuum of Care for:

Interdisciplinary consultation; symptom-specific clinics; resources & support