

KESHET (“rainbow” in Hebrew)

- Dance studio with a preprofessional dance program
- Offers community classes in ballet, modern, and improv
- Offers business training for nonprofit artists
- Offered summer camps pre-Covid
- Community dance productions

MISSION

Keshet is an arts-based non-profit organization which exists to inspire and unite community by fostering unlimited possibilities through dance, mentorship and a creative space for the arts.

RE: PEOPLE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

- Keshet’s current Community Education Director and instructor has degrees in SpEd & dance
- Anyone can participate in classes, community productions, and choreography
- Since Covid started, classes and choreography have been online
- Have served mostly people with ID but will serve anyone
- Two wheelchairs have been donated

PARTNERS

- Cornucopia, a community for adults with special needs
- Bernalillo Juvenile Detention Center
- Kids classes at Midtown Gym
- South Valley Middle School
- Have varied over the years
- Would love to establish more partnerships with OT/PTs in ABQ

FUNDING and PROGRAM COSTS

- Founded in 1966
- Grant and donor funded
- Stable for now
- Offers noncompetitive scholarships (don’t need to prove need)
- Online classes are pay-what-you-can
