

Tribal Leaders' Public Health Symposium

MARCH 24 - 25, 2020
HOTEL ALBUQUERQUE AT OLD TOWN
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

This symposium is an opportunity for American Indian Tribal Leaders to build on their knowledge and skills in tribal public health governance.

Topics include:

- Core Functions & Essential Services of Public Health
- Common Health Issues
- Policy development in Tribal communities

Who should attend?

Elected or appointed Tribal Leaders including:

- Governors & Lt. Governors
- Presidents & Vice-Presidents
- Chairmen/Chairwomen & Vice-Chairmen/Vice-Chairwomen
- Tribal Councilmen & Councilwomen
- Navajo Chapter Presidents & Vice-Presidents

Registration

There is no registration fee, but pre-registration is required. Registrants must commit to participating in the entire workshop. Partial registrations (i.e. one day) are not accepted.

Meeting refreshments and most meals provided. Limited number of travel scholarships available for participants traveling more than 50 miles.

For more information and registration visit:
<https://goto.unm.edu/cnah-tlphs>