

Dr. Kevin & Laurie Goodluck Scholarship Guidelines

A primary role of the Center for Native American Health (CNAH) is to support the academic, social, and cultural needs of Native American students enrolled in a health-related degree program at the University of New Mexico. Thus, CNAH offers Native American students financial assistance through the Dr. Kevin & Laurie Goodluck Scholarship.

The maximum award of this scholarship is $300 per academic year. Recipients will only be awarded once per academic year.

All recipients are REQUIRED to provide at least two (2) hours of volunteer service to CNAH, (e.g., participating in or leading a CNAH presentation, assisting with CNAH sponsored activities, etc.), plus a thank you letter addressed to CNAH's Executive Director, Dr. Tassy Parker.

*Scholarships will be awarded based on the availability of funds and at CNAH's discretion. This award will impact a student's financial aid. All requests and awards are subject to review for compliance with UNM Policies. Please check with the UNM Financial Aid office to clarify impact to student account.
