

Pathways to a Healthy Bernalillo County

Partner Organization Description

October 2013

Name of Organization	Specialty Services Offered	Target Area
Rio Grande Community Development Corp. (RGCDC)  South Valley Healthy Communities Collaborative (SVHCC) [*] 318 Isleta Blvd SW  Phone: 452-8525 Contact: Kim Zamarin	The RGCDC is actively involved in building healthy and sustainable communities in the South Valley through various projects and collaborations with partner organizations. Programs include environmental health, justice, and quality land use planning, small business development, improving access to health care, leadership development and advocating for quality improvement of basic infrastructure including streets, water and waste water.	SW Quadrant of Bernalillo County
La Plazita Institute [*] 831 Isleta Blvd. SW (south of Bridge)  Phone: 508-1802 Navigator: Tomas Martinez	Serves youth in custody and those previously incarcerated, gang-involved youth, and returning veterans suffering from PTSD. We provide a sense of belonging and "familia" for these individuals and offer opportunities to engage positively with the larger community.	Countywide
South Valley Economic Development Center (SVEDC) [*] 318 Isleta Blvd SW  Phone: 319-3356 Navigator: Fernando Ortega	Serves as a commercial kitchen and business incubator. Work with small businesses in our office space and in our commercial kitchen, helping them get started and grow successfully..	South Valley
Casa de Salud Family Clinic [*] 1608 Isleta Blvd SW (corner of Arenal)  Phone: 907-8311 Navigators: Guadalupe Fuentes & Kati O'Donnell	Provides same-day medical services at prices guaranteed to make you feel better. Full range of clinical services including substance abuse treatment. We use a holistic approach and can offer both conventional and natural treatments. Pap smears available by appointment.	Countywide
PB &amp; J Family Services, Inc. [*] 1101 Lopez Road SW  Phone: 944-7224 Navigators: Claudia Benavidez & Victor Magallanes	To provide therapeutic support to high risk families and resiliency development with children thru pre-schools, parenting education, case management, home-based services, and working with parents soon-to-be released from incarceration.	Countywide
Centro Sávila [*] 1317 Isleta Blvd. SW  Phone: 312-7296 Navigator: Angélica Regino	Centro Savila is located in the South Valley, and provides outpatient counseling and psychotherapy, including substance abuse treatment, to individuals, couples and families. Other services include: Case management and patient advocacy; Life skills training- parenting classes, anger management, and support groups. All services are offered in both Spanish and English by culturally and linguistically competent providers.	Countywide
First Nations Community Healthsource 5608 Zuni SE  Phone: 262-2481 Navigator: Dawn Begay	Primary care, dental, behavioral health (mental health, co-occurring disorders, and substance abuse counseling, psychiatric assessments), HIV prevention and case management, diabetes prevention/education, Medicaid enrollment, WIC, traditional healing, acupuncture, massage, cultural mentorship, youth mentoring, healthy relationship education, social services, case management, homeless outreach, supportive housing case management, and emergency assistance.	Countywide

Enlace Comunitario  Phone: 246-8972, ext. 25 Navigator: Sarahy Flores	Confidential support services for Spanish-speaking immigrant victims of Domestic Violence and their children. Counseling: individual, family and group. Case Management: referrals and advocacy. Life skills classes: parenting, ESL, and teen groups. Legal Services: legal advocacy in civil and criminal court and representation (limited service) in domestic violence and domestic matters civil cases.	Countywide
East Central Ministries, Inc. 123 Vermont NE  Phone: 256-1100 Navigators: Lidia Regino & Karla Castañeda	Services are provided for the uninsured and those for whom health care is not available through the established system. Focus on community development in the La Mesa & Trumbull neighborhoods.	Southeast Heights & near Northeast neighborhoods  (87108 zip code)
Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement Program 3301 Candelaria NE  Phone: 724-4690 Navigators: Beatrice Villegas & Celia Yapita	Catholic Charities is the sole provider of refugee resettlement services in the State of New Mexico. The refugee resettlement program provides case management, job services, educational services, youth programming, and immigration assistance to individuals with the following immigration statuses: refugees, asylees, Cuban/Haitian Entrants, victims of human trafficking, and special immigrant visa holders.	Countywide
Samaritan Counseling Center 7401 Copper Ave., NE  Phone: 232-9803 ext. 507 Navigator: Margarita Galvis	St. Joseph Center for Children & Families, a program of the Samaritan Counseling Center, provides counseling and resources for children and their families in Albuquerque's International District with particular attention to the needs of Spanish-speaking and immigrant families. Sliding fee scale for families without insurance.	Southeast Heights & near Northeast neighborhoods
Encuentro  Downtown Collaborative 714 4 th St., SW  Phone: 247-2920 Navigator: Anne Liechty	Encuentro's mission is to strengthen New Mexico by building the leadership capacity and community engagement of Spanish speaking immigrants through a Leadership Development Program that includes Adult Education classes in English as a Second Language, GED preparation, Computer Training, Financial Literacy and Family Strengthening to build dialogue and action around issues affecting our community.	Countywide
New Mexico Immigrant Law Center 714 4 th St., SW  Phone: 247-1023 Navigator: Ruth Pekar	NMILC seeks to advocate for and improve the status, security, health and well-being of New Mexico's low-income immigrants and their families by providing immigration legal services and information.	Countywide
A New Awakening, Inc. 600 1st Street, Suite 200  Phone: 224-9124 Navigator: Dawn Cannon	Women with addiction problems recently released from incarceration. Family and individual services are provided for people suffering from substance abuse and/or mental health issues. Additional holistic services include acupuncture, massage, and yoga. ANA also provides free domestic violence offender services.	Downtown Area 1 st & Roma