

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Join the UNM HSC Office for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion for our Women's History Month event:

BORDER BODIES Presentation with Dr. Bernadine Hernández

Thursday, March 27, 2025

1:00 p.m. MST

Held Virtually on ZOOM

Join Dr. Bernadine Hernández, Associate Professor in the Department of English, and Director of American Literary Studies at UNM, as she discusses with participants her book titled "Border Bodies: Racialized Sexuality, Sexual Capital, and Violence in the Nineteenth Century Borderlands."

The first book length study of its kind, Dr. Hernández will illustrate with participants the stories of sexual capital, power dynamics, and gender and sexual violence in the borderlands in the nineteenth and early twentieth-centuries through recovered archival work. These elements together reveal how the role of women's bodies played a significant role in the changing American Southwest, with sex being inseparable from power in the borderlands and women being integral in the stabilization of that power.

REGISTER HERE

HEALTH SCIENCES
OFFICE FOR DIVERSITY,
EQUITY & INCLUSION

HSC-Diversity@salud.unm.edu

505-272-2728

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Join the UNM HSC Office for Diversity, Equity & Inclusion for our Women's History Month event:

BORDER BODIES Presentation with Dr. Bernadine Hernández

Thursday, March 27

1:00 p.m. MST

Held Virtually on ZOOM

SCAN TO REGISTER

Join Dr. Bernadine Hernández, Associate Professor in the Department of English, and Director of American Literary Studies at UNM, as she discusses with participants her book titled "Border Bodies: Racialized Sexuality, Sexual Capital, and Violence in the Nineteenth Century Borderlands."

The first book length study of its kind, Dr. Hernández will illustrate with participants the stories of sexual capital, power dynamics, and gender and sexual violence in the borderlands in the nineteenth and early twentieth-centuries through recovered archival work. These elements together reveal how the role of women's bodies played a significant role in the changing American Southwest, with sex being inseparable from power in the borderlands and women being integral in the stabilization of that power.

