

Project ECHO® (Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes)

Mental Health & Resiliency TeleECHO™ Clinic - 2021 Spring Curriculum

SCHEDULE	TOPIC	PRESENTER
	1. Psychological First-Aid
1/14/2021	American Indian Traditional Medicine in Primary Care	Donald Warne, MD, MPH
1/28/2021	Coping with Ambiguous Loss	Avron Kriechman, MD
2/11/2021	Disrespect: Native Elder Abuse, Financial Exploitation, and COVID-19	Jacque Gray, PhD
2/25/2021	Managing Stress in 2020 and 2021: A Mental Health Booster for Working in the Clinic	Debbie Snyder, MSW, LCSW-C
3/11/2021	AI/AN Vaccine Acceptance	Naomi Lee, MD
3/25/2021	Partnering with Families to Understand how Needs have Changed and how Care might need to be Modified	Marilyn Zimmerman, PhD
4/8/2021	Creating a Trauma-Informed Staff centered on Native Approaches to Healing and Resilience	Diane Hietpas, MS
4/22/2021	Models of Integrated Behavioral Health	Jasen Christensen, DO and Linda Stone, Ed.D.
4/29/2021	Brief Evidence-Based Treatment in Primary Care – Pt. 1	Bridget McNulty, MD
5/13/2021	Brief Evidence-Based Treatment in Primary Care – Pt. 2	Larry Wissow, MD
5/27/2021	Staff Wellness and Resilience at a Time of Multiple Challenges	Patty Taylor, RN
6/10/2021	Strong Partnerships with Schools in a Changing Educational Environment	Wendell Waukau, MA, ES
6/24/2021	Embedding Programs in the Community	Jerry Waukau
7/8/2021	Addressing the Impact of Grief and Loss on Individuals and Communities	Christopher Piromalli, DO, MPH
7/22/2021	Motivational Interviewing	Tara McCune, MA, LPCC
7/29/2021	Social Emotional Resources for Children	Ryan Chee, School Principle
8/12/2021	The Role of Poetry in Healing	Joy Harjo, Poet Laureate

Project ECHO® (Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes)