

Project ECHO® (Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes)
 First Responder ECHO Curriculum – 2020

First Responder ECHO 2nd and 4th Mondays, 2:00 – 3:30 PM (MT)
Jan 13, 2020	Cannabis and First Responders	Snehal Bhatt, MD
Jan 20, 2020	No TeleECHO Session – Martin Luther King, Jr. Day
Jan 27, 2020	Methamphetamine	Jeff Katzman, MD
Feb 3, 2020	Opioid Use Disorder	Paul Romo, MD
Feb 10, 2020	Alcohol as a Coping Mechanism	Jasen Christensen, MD
Feb 17, 2020	No TeleECHO Session – President’s Day
Feb 24, 2020	Coping with Emotions	Jeff Katzman, MD
Mar 9, 2020	Recognizing Child Abuse and Neglect	Detective Autumn Neas, BCSO
The session schedule and curriculum have been and will continue to be continuously modified in response to Project ECHO’s efforts to aide in the relief of the COVID-19 pandemic.
Mar 23, 2020	COVID-19 for First Responders	Captain Jimmy Melek, AFR
Apr 6, 2020	1) COVID-19 for First Responders 2) Self-Care for Frontline Healthcare Workers	1) Bureau Chief Kyle Thornton, NM DOH ERD 2) Jeff Katzman, MD
As of Apr 13, 2020, the First Responder ECHO will be taking a shift in focus under the new title “First Responder Resiliency ECHO” in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, and to provide resources and support to our first responders and frontline healthcare workers. Please email firstresponderecho@salud.unm.edu for more information or visit our webpage at https://echo.unm.edu/covid-19/sessions/firstresponder		