EVP & CEO Report

Dr. Michael Richards provided updates on federal funding challenges affecting 26 research projects with a projected $20.5 million loss over five years. He discussed legislative wins including $30M for a new School of Medicine building, $25M for the College of Pharmacy Phase II, and $10M for a reproductive health clinic. Behavioral health reform was highlighted with a $2B trust fund and $120M investment, with UNM receiving $1.8M for a Technical Advisory Center. Clinical and academic achievements were noted, including national rankings and the Inclusive Dermatology Initiative. Dr. Richards explained that the statewide mental health care initiative is a program designed to support regional planning across 15 districts, based on the old behavioral health collaborative model. There was a discussion centered on psychedelic-assisted therapy research, particularly for PTSD treatment. Dr. Richards confirmed that $500,000 was allocated to support this research, which is currently focused on pregnant women with substance use disorders connected to the Milagro program. While the topic is gaining interest among veterans and in Congress, there is no active collaboration with the VA at this time, though future engagement is being considered.
