

Douglas Ziedonis, MD, MPH, is the Executive Vice President for Health Sciences and Chief Executive Officer for the UNM Health System at the University of New Mexico. As EVP, he oversees the UNM School of Medicine and Colleges of Nursing, Pharmacy, and Population Health. He was Associate Vice Chancellor for Health Sciences at the University of California San Diego and has had other roles as Chief Academic Officer, President of UMass Memorial Behavioral Health Services, Department Chair, and Board of Trustee. He is a Distinguished Professor in Psychiatry with an academic career focused on critical public health and health concerns, such as health equity, homelessness, addictions, mental illness, and healthy aging. He has led and sponsored numerous faculty development initiatives throughout his career, including overseeing Faculty and Academic Affairs Offices, developing department-level Career Development

A/R Grant Writing Programs and Research Offices, Mentoring and Leadership Programs, Executive Coaching Initiatives, and a Leadership College.