

The UNM School of Medicine Learning Environment Office and Office of Professional Well-being invite you to:

Creating & Developing Mentor-Mentee Relationships By Building Trust

This talk is co-sponsored by the Office of Faculty Affairs

Presented by

Akshay Sood, MD, MPH

Assistant Dean of Mentoring and Faculty Retention and

Nour A Assad, MD

Assistant Professor, Division of Pulm, Critical Care & Sleep Medicine

UNM School of Medicine

Join us virtually for our 2021 Trust Matters Series

Monday, Sept. 13 | 12-1 pm

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Discuss the three-part mentoring model and the central role of trust in the mentor-mentee relationship.
- Discuss the outcomes of a faculty mentor development program.
- Define the key components of organizational mentoring climate.

RSVP HERE

Open to all members of the HSC community.
This activity has been approved for
AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM

Learning Environment Office
Office of Professional Well-being