Table Notes:

All numbers and percentages reflect new, matriculated students in the listed cohorts, as of the program start date.

Math and Science GPA Calculations:

2025 cohort and forward: includes all science and math courses taken in last 10 years.

2024 cohort: includes all science and math courses.

2023 cohort and prior: includes UNM PA science and math prerequisites only.

Community Service Hours Range:

2023 cohort and prior: actual hours were not calculated but were assigned experience levels from none to extensive.

Race/Ethnicity Calculations:

Race/Ethnicity totals may not equal 100% as students may self identify as none or multiple races/ethnicities.

New Mexico Residency:

For admissions/application purposes, the following applicants are considered New Mexico residents: Applicants who have physically resided in New Mexico for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the submission of their application, or; Applicants who graduated from a New Mexico high school, but have been out of the state for the specific purpose of educational enrichment at an accredited institution or active military service, or; Applicants who are enrolled members of an American Indian nation, tribe and pueblo, located wholly or partially in New Mexico.
