

George D. Montoya Research Scholarship Fund

Established by the George D. Montoya family and the UNM Department of Pathology to provide scholarships to encourage UNM undergraduate and graduate students to pursue a career path in biomedical research.

Application Deadline: Wednesday, March 24, 2021

STUDENT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Name: _____ UNM ID# _____

Street Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone Number: _____ E-mail: _____

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS
All students must submit:

- One page essay detailing: prior or current biomedical research; future career interest as a biomedical researcher; community service experience; and experience mentoring other students pursuing a career in biomedical research.
- Unofficial copy of UNM academic transcript (used to verify good academic standing).
- Two confidential letters of recommendation from mentors supporting student’s career path in biomedical research. Mentors are to send their letters directly to the HSC Student Financial Aid Office (address below).
- Interview of the top 3 candidates will be required.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Classification

Undergraduate _____

Graduate _____

Residency Status (please mark one only):

New Mexico Resident ____

Non-Resident ____

Anticipated Graduation Date: _____

I certify that all information on this application, as well as all information attached to this application, is true and completed to the best of my knowledge. I do hereby consent to the release of all information concerning my academic and financial aid status to scholarship donors.

Signature

Date

Please submit application with all required documentation via email to:

HSC Student Financial Aid

Eddie Salazar: EDSalazar1@salud.unm.edu - or -

Leslie Gast: LGast@salud.unm.edu

Telephone (505) 272-8008