31st Annual Amazing Newborns Conference

The University of New Mexico Department of Pediatrics' Neonatology Outreach Program is proud to present the 31st Annual Amazing Newborns Conference.

This two-day conference will be held on November 9-10, 2023 at the Embassy Suites by Hilton in Albuquerque, NM.

This year's conference, titled Averting Crisis in the Newborn, presents a well-balanced agenda that focuses on giving quality care in all aspects of neonatal care. We're excited that Dr. Whittney Barkhuff from the University of Vermont Medical Center, will be joining us to present on late preterm risk factors.

We invite you to participate in this event. This opportunity will allow you to show case your product and/or service information to physicians, practitioners, nurses, other health care providers, and community members within New Mexico and the bordering states.

Included in this prospectus are details regarding various sponsorship and exhibit opportunities and the link to the online letter of agreement (required to participate).

If you have any questions, or would like more information, please contact Tisha Aldredge or Maria Vidaca at Continuous Professional Learning (CPL) at HSC-CPL@salud.unm.edu.

Sponsorship and exhibit opportunities are limited so please contact us ASAP to secure your participation.

On behalf of the Amazing Newborns Conference planning committee, we thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Rael, MD
