What is SNA?

UNM Student Nurses Association (SNA) empowers undergraduate student nurses to explore educational and employment opportunities while benefiting their community. This organization helps you grow into your potential personally, clarify your professional role and understand your responsibility for providing health care to people in all walks of life.

Benefits of SNA

- Networking As an active participant, you will meet and interact with professors, fellow students, renowned guest speakers and potential employers.
- Community involvement Expect many opportunities to give back to your community.
- Peer mentoring Receive one-on-one mentorship from experienced students for your pre-nursing and UNM College of Nursing courses.
- Travel Attend the National Student Nurses Association's annual and mid-year conferences.
- Graduation incentives All active members will receive honors cords to wear proudly during graduation.
- Additional NSNA Membership benefits including discounts to different stores, items, etc.!

What does SNA do?

- Host biweekly meetings via Zoom for all members and all those who are interested
- Guest speakers present occasionally
- Level check-ins to discuss nursing school, ask questions and seek advice
- Work, volunteer and collaborate within the community
- Experience expanded growth in your time at UNM CON
- Meet new people who are in the same experience as you, connect and collaborate with one another to excel

SNA Memberships

Associate Membership:

- Pre-nursing students, including RN, enrolled in college/university programs designed as preparation for entrance intro a program to receive a degree/diploma in nursing.
- Available to any interested student at UNM.
- Associate members shall have all of the privileges of membership except the right to hold an office at any level including state and national.
- Not required to join NSNA, unless they wish to have one semester of prenursing count towards fulfillment of honor cords, or if they wish to attend an NSNA conference.

Active Membership:

- Students enrolled in a state approved program that leads to a licensure as a registered nurse.
- Registered nurses enrolled in programs leading to a baccalaureate degree with a major in nursing.
- Active members shall have all of the privileges of the membership.

SNA Honor Cord Requirements

- d. Active members who started as pre-nursing members, and paid NSNA dues as a pre-nursing member, must meet minimum requirements for one pre-nursing semester, and two out of four active nursing school semesters.

NSNA Leadership University Honor Society

Professional Identity Formation in Nursing

The NSNA Leadership University Honor Society accelerates your formation of a professional identity in nursing. Nursing school is the beginning of your leadership journey that will advance your career and contribute to the advancement of the nursing profession. NSNA provides numerous opportunities for you to learn about the many facets of the nursing profession including Population and Global Health; Breakthrough to Nursing (recruitment into the profession); Ethics and Governance; Health Policy and Advocacy; Image of Nursing; and governing a school chapter, state association and national organization. Through these programs, social justice, social determinants of health, diversity, equity, and inclusion will contribute to the advancement of nursing's social mission and are integrated into professional identity.

Think, Act and Feel Like a Nurse

The signposts of professional Identity in Nursing include: Values and Ethics, Leadership, Knowledge, and Professional Comportment.* By practicing leadership in nursing school, you will apply and integrate learning to build your self-confidence and knowledge. You will be better prepared think, act and feel like a professional nurse and to transition into nursing practice and leadership roles as a new graduate RN.

*Student members who participate in the NSNA Leadership University Honor Society will receive a certificate of recognition and patch for their participation. Additionally, they will be able to purchase a special Leadership University Honor Society graduation cords and pin.
