RHCP CBPR Conceptual Model

Adapted from Wallerstein et al: 2008 and Wallerstein and Duran 2010

CONTEXTS
- Social and Structural
  - Social-economic status, place, history, environment, religion and culture
- Health Issue Importance
  - Perceived severity by partners
- Capacity and Readiness
  - Community-academic capacity and readiness
- Collaboration Trust and Mistrust
  - Historic trust, mistrust between partners

PARTNERSHIP DYNAMICS
- Individual Characteristics
  - Shared core values
  - Personal awareness
  - Individual motivation
  - Respectful
  - Integrity
  - Experience
- Partnership Structures
  - Diversity
  - Complex roles and relationships
  - Shared tangible assets and resources
  - Time in partnership
- Relationships
  - Community voice, community language
  - Trust
  - Local knowledge integration
  - Appreciation of individual and community assets
  - Flexibility: dialogue, listening and co-learning
  - Participatory decision-making and negotiation

RESEARCH AND INTERVENTION
- Fit: Cultural Knowledge, Norms and Practices
- Synergy: Partnership Co-learning
- Community Engaged in Research: Appropriate Research Design

OUTCOMES
- Improved Health
- Reduced Health Disparities
- System and Capacity
  - Policies and practices
  - Sustained interventions
  - Enriched relationships
  - Capacity
  - Community building and empowerment

Rochester Healthy Community Partnership, Rochester, Minnesota, 2017