

COLLEGE OF
POPULATION HEALTH

CAPSTONE SPRING 2020

Despite the COVID-19 Pandemic our Spring 2020 Capstone students...

Completed OVER
5000
hours

"Thank you for making Population Health a major at UNM. It has provided me with the perspective I craved for a career in healthcare."

Learned Professional Skills

Communication Group Collaboration Community Building
Leadership Public Speaking Grant Writing Research
Survey Development Critical Thinking Project Management
Time Management Interviewing Conducting Meetings
Networking Workplace Etiquette & Dress Cultural Awareness

SITES INCLUDED

- Prevention Research Center
- UNM Hospital
- Three Sisters Kitchen
- Breaking the Silence New Mexico
- Office of U.S. Senator Martin Heinrich
- Presbyterian Hospital
- Southwest Cultural Center
- RFK Charter School
- Self-Service Sexuality Resource Center

"My favorite part of class was hearing about everyone's experiences at their sites. It was so cool hearing how everyone was applying the skills we've learned and the opportunities they were gaining from their sites."

88.5%
of students considered their site supervisor a mentor

88.5%
of students said their Capstone aided in networking

"I really enjoyed this capstone experience despite not having things turn out the way they were meant to originally."

