“Single Cell and Single Molecule Spectroscopy and Imaging: Revealing Heterogeneity in Biological Systems”

Dr. Jerilyn Timlin is a distinguished Member of Technical Staff at Sandia National Laboratories, his research develops and applies novel advanced imaging and spectroscopic-based tools in conjunction with multivariate image analysis to understand the fundamental spatial-temporal relationships that govern complex biological processes.

Time/Location:
12:00 – 1:00 PM • Fitz Hall • Room 303