

9TH ANNUAL

UNM Brain & Behavioral Health

RESEARCH DAY

Friday, March 22, 2024

9 am — 3:30 pm

The University of New Mexico,
Domenici Center for Health Sciences Education,
Albuquerque

All are welcome!

Register and Submit an Abstract at bit.ly/unm-brain-2024

Call for Abstracts!

Community Organizations, UNM Faculty, Staff, and Students are welcome to participate in the poster session.

Opt-in poster competition

Students and trainees:

Three monetary awards will be given for each category (basic science, clinical research & population health), $100 first place, $75 second place, $50 third place.

Community organizations:

$100 award will be given to each of the two finalists.

See registration link for more information.

Deadline to submit an abstract is March 4.

2024 Event Theme: Neurodevelopmental Disorders

AGENDA HIGHLIGHTS

9 am Poster Sessions I & II

Current research and community programs from all disciplines in brain & behavioral health

12 pm Keynote Presentation, 1.0 CME credit available

“Substance Use and Exposure: Risk Factor and Outcome From the Prenatal Period to Beyond”

2 pm UNM Centers with focus on Neurodevelopment during childhood

- Navajo Birth Cohort Study (Dr. Debra MacKenzie)
- HEALthy Brain and Child Development (Dr. Ludmila Bakhireva)
- IDeA State Pediatric Clinical Trials Network (Dr. Alberta Kong)
- Neonatal Research Network (Dr. Jessie Maxwell)
- Center for Development and Disability (Dr. Marcia Moriarta)
- New Mexico Alcohol Research Center (Dr. Daniel Savage)

Keynote Speaker:

Ryan Bogdan, PhD

Dean's Distinguished Professor in Psychological and Brain Sciences
Washington University, St. Louis

Brain & Behavioral Health Institute | Neurosciences | Neurology | Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences | NIDA SW Clinical Trails Network | Center for Memory and Aging | Psychology | College of Pharmacy | UNM Hospital Office of Diversity of Equity & Inclusion | Cellular and Molecular Basis of Disease (CMBD) | Child Health Research Signature Program brain.health.unm.edu

Event Contact: Faith Ann Brandt, HSC-BBHI@salud.unm.edu