The Call is Coming From Inside the House: Exploring Identity Threat in Health Professions

Presented by:

Justin Bullock, MD and
Hannah Anderson, MA, PhD

RSVP HERE

In this session participants will:

- Define identity threat and give examples of intrapersonal, interpersonal, and structural harms as they show up in health professions education.
- As an exemplar, we will specifically analyze narratives of disabled BIPOC students using horror story as a lens to understand identity threat.

This series features cumulative learning, so we encourage participants to attend all sessions for the full experience. If you miss a session, recordings will be available to ensure you can stay engaged.
